The Missouri Public Utilities Co. have received large supply of telephone poles which means the Cape's White way will soon be an attractive feature of the town.

With the dust blowing in all directions Tuesday, it would not be a bad suggestion to the City authorities to get busy with the street sweeper and sprinkler.

The many friends of Miss Placide Weber will be glad to learn that she is now getting along very nicely and expects to be out in a few days. Miss Placide has been quite ill for the past two weeks with the measles.

The ladies of the Altar Society of St. Vincent's Church will have a market Saturday, March 28th in the Houck Building, corner Main and Independence streets. They will have plenty of good things to eat for your Sunday dinner.

City Engineer Chris Stiver is busy working on the plans and specifications for the improvement on Benton street from Independence to Bloomfield, and Frederick from Merriweather to Williams. Improvements to be made in concrete.

It is interesting, in looking over the club notes of the country, to see how many of the Civic Clubs in the various cities have started a campaign to have the bread wrapped, as it is maintained that bread is often left very carelessly by the distributors in the mornings and is handled by very dirty people. They wish the bread delivered in sealed sanitary packages.

The ladies of the Monday Club had quite an interesting game at the Elk's club Monday afternoon. There were three tables, two of bridge and one of 500, and the prizes were won by Miss Stewart, for 500 and Mrs. Noll of St. Louis the bridge prize. Those playing during the afternoon were Mesdames Bader, J. McCannan, Dr. Vorbeck, Ed. Johnston, R. Schultz, J. P. Meyers, H. Coffman, R. Noll, Robt. Matteson, Wm. Cantrell, Misses Nona Stewart and Floss Machen.

Mrs. Christine Frederick, in the American Review, tells why 80 per cent. of the modern housework is inefficient. The worker does not have the proper tools, she says, at inefficient. She says: "The worker does not have the proper tools at hand when she begins the work; she wastes time and effort walking about fetching tools and ingredients, that she should have on hand when she begins work; she stops in the middle of a task to do something else; she lowers the efficiency of good work by losing time putting tools or work away due to poor arrangement of kitchen, pantry or closets, she loses time by not keeping sufficient supplies in hand and tools in proper condition."

The attractive "Tea" given by Mrs. C. C. Hawley and Mrs. C. Kirkpatrick at the residence of the latter on Ellis street, Saturday afternoon, in honor of their aunt, Mrs. George Vandeeven, of Hutchinson, Kansas, and who is their house guest, was one of the most delightful affairs that has been given in Cape Girardeau for some time. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and white flowers, with ferns and palms, making an engaging background. Quite a number of ladies dropped in during the afternoon, and with their many handsome, new spring gowns, made quite a pleasing picture. The young ladies assisting the hostesses, and adding greatly to the occasion by their charming manners and dainty costumes were, Misses Louise Vasterling, Margaret Bounting, Nona Stewart and Florence Catern.

Mrs. J. A. Hawkins of Fountain street left Sunday for a few days shopping in St. Louis.

The Nancy Hunter Chapter of the D. A. R. are eagerly looking forward to a visit from the State Regent, Mrs. George B. McFarland. Mrs. McFarland is expected some time this week, and the ladies of the local organization are planning an interesting meeting upon her arrival.

Tuesday evening the Knights and Ladies of Security will have an adjourned meeting at their club rooms in the Vandeeven, building to complete the work of the last quarter, and to initiate all the members recently taken in. There will be about six new members join this organization. A delightful lunch will be served by the gentlemen of the club.

A new branch of the Western Catholic Union, was organized at New Hamburg, Sunday by the Supreme President F. W. Keckenkamp, of Quincy, Ill., at which time thirty four new members were taken in. A jolly time was reported by the Cape folks who attended. They were loud in their praise of the hospitality of the New Hamburg natives. The local members who participated in the celebration were C. Schoen, T. Holder, A. Wilbermeyer, F. Schwartz, A. Zimmer, L. Schenckhoff, V. Wagner, J. Schenckhoff, B. Koldfeld, R. Zimmer and B. Taylor.

The Knights and Ladies of Security had a delicious time Tuesday evening at their meeting, held in the Vandeeven building. It was the gentlemen's evening to treat, and a treat it was. G. Pair was the chief cook, and chairman of the luncheon committee, and his able assistants were G. M. Drum, who had charge of the coffee, J. Nothdurft, as dish washer and the ever-ready waiters, Wesley Lowe, Glenn Young, H. L. Peckens, Edgar Wilson, Morsel Temple, Edwin Boren. They did serve a fine spread, with all credit due them, and now some of the wives of the members are preparing themselves for a long vacation while the husbands do the cooking. Dr. Roberts gave a most interesting talk on how to take care of the servant question. And the balance of the evening was passed in social entertainment.

Several plans recently made by the Civic and Health Committee, of St. Louis for the making of the "City Beautiful," may well be worth copying by our own Civic Club. One of the plans is to have one of the women in each block or section of the city take charge of the vacant lot nearest her, and see what can be done with it to make it beautiful during the summer. The children will also be interested, and many of the young society girls have expressed their willingness to take a hand in the work of making the lots pleasant places to look upon. Then comes the question of how to get rid of the flies. The Normal and Public school pupils have started a vigorous campaign against these pests, and their efforts should receive the support of all the citizens interested in the welfare of the city, and the general health of the community for unless these germ carriers are exterminated, more diseases and pestilences will follow, as has already been proven by scientists who have made special study of the harm that can be brought about by the tiny fly.

Miss Lena Wetzel returned to her home in St. Louis, after a weeks visit with Mrs. W. T. Ruff on South Pacific street.

Mrs. George Hanford and brother T. Shaw of this city have gone to Chicago for a few weeks visit with Mrs. Hanford's son Roy Hanford of that city.

The Guild of the Episcopal Church met Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Wasem of Good Hope street. The ladies are busy sewing for the bazaar to be held during Easter week.

M. K. Froemschorff, of R. F. D. No. 5, entertained the Society Club with a grand quilting party Monday evening, March 23, and the Club will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. Vogelsang.

The ladies of the Altar Society of St. Vincent's Church will hold a market Saturday in the Houck Building, corner of Main and Independence. Many good things can be bought for the Sunday dinner.

James Shelton, who has been visiting in the Cape for the past few weeks, left Sunday morning for Chicago, where he makes his home with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Shelton, in that city.

One of the prettiest bridge parties of the week was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Ralph Schultz at her home on North Middle street. An unusually interesting game was played the honors of the afternoon going to Mrs. Robt. L. Lamkin, and Mrs. Ed. Johnston. The ladies enjoying the game were Mesdames H. Coffman, Noll of St. Louis, Wm. Cantrell, W. H. Harrison, George Patton, Robt. Matteson, W. S. Albert, J. P. Meyers, F. Carmack, R. L. Lamkin, J. McCannan, E. G. Gramling, Ed. Johnston, P. B. Leming, Misses Florence Catern and Miss Floss Machen.

Convention on "A Living Wage for Women."

An article found recently in one of the St. Louis papers, concerning the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Chicago in June, may be of interest to the local members of the clubs who are sending delegates from this city and district. One of the splendidly organized departments of the General Federation of Women's Clubs is the industrial and social conditions department, of which Mrs. James P. Remic of Concord, N. H., is the chairman. It is concentrating in its industrial division upon securing a living wage for women, and this will be discussed at the biennial convention at Chicago in June. The social conditions branch of the department is engaged in research work which points to the immediate need of women, at ports of entry to protect immigrant women from commercialized vice. In this day they are co-operating with rescue leagues and immigrant and vice commissions. All this will be handled by Mrs. Reinhold on the day set apart for her department at the biennial convention. Her report will be followed by and address by Miss Jane Adams, who will speak upon the immigrant woman as she adjusts herself to American life. Miss Grace Abbott, who is now working with the immigrant commission in Boston, securing data in regard to the extent of commercialized vice in Massachusetts, will speak on the immigrant woman as she arrives in the port.

For the afternoon conference of the department Dean Sumner of Chicago will speak upon the values of schools as social centers. Mr. John Hilder, field secretary of the National Housing Committee, will speak upon the housing problem—a woman's problem. Mr. George J. Kneeland, one of the directors of the American Vigilance Association, and who has prepared the report for the Rockefeller Foundation on commercialized vice, will speak on the following subject: "A source of Supply, the Young Girls of today." "Their Dangers and Problems."

SAFETY FIRST.

There is something about the "safety first" movement that is being adopted by railroads and others in what are regarded as dangerous occupations, that may well appeal to the people of the whole section affected. There are plenty of instances in which risk has been run where there has been no serious effects. But occasionally there is an accident of more or less serious nature that indicates a risk taken once too often. In these days it is no longer of maimings and deaths as the result of any occupation or line of work. Much may be done to avoid them by reasonable precautions and instructions as to the dangers of practices that are altogether too common. That is a work that is being attended to in a way that indicates good results and a lessening of the dangers and the fatalities that in the past have been accepted as a matter of course.

NORWAY'S WOMEN ARE MEN'S EQUALS

Suffragists Have Won Complete Victory Without Militancy.

London, March 21.—Writing from Christiania, Harold Spender says: The first and most vivid impression received by a foreigner who moves among Norwegians is the position of women. It seems to differ from their present position in any other country of Europe. They are not submissive, and yet they are not aggressive. They are neither timid nor loud. They dress with modesty; and they dress fittingly, as when they go out for sport. But the great fact is their social position. Here they really seem to move among men as equals; and that position seems to be now accepted without any real damage either to the womanhood or manhood of the country. On the contrary, both seem to be better for it.

The achievement of the voting power by Norwegian women is only a part of this vast movement, which is represented by a claim to equality in society as a whole. The women of Norway have worked for that greater aim simultaneously with the suffrage agitation ever since 1885, and they have achieved their aims together. Practically all the professions are now open to women in Norway, except the priesthood and the army. Men and women are educated together at school and college. They form clubs and societies together both for sports, pleasure and serious objects. The young men, indeed, are now said to refuse to have separate societies, and the two sexes are more and more working together in all spheres of life. Women sit on juries, and there is now one woman judge. And yet Norway does not sink into the sea. On the contrary, she has, by general consent, never been so prosperous.

The vote is the banner and the emblem of this movement, the crown of woman's claim in Norway. The story of the way in which the women of Norway secured the vote is deeply interesting to all people. There was no violence of any kind—not even interruptions of meetings. The Norwegian women obtained the vote without losing their womanhood. The victory came in the end quite peacefully, and by the consent of all parties. The prime minister of Norway says emphatically that if the women of Norway had acted as the militants in England—or even as the non-militants of the National Union—they would never have got the vote in Norway. The women get it in the normal political way, by helping and supporting their friends in all parties.

The first victory of the suffragists in Norway was to secure the local vote. That vote has been very extensively used. It is now, universal, and it has resulted in Christiania on the Swedishists, being the most powerful party in the national parliament. The next victory was the "Constitution Bill" vote—for state purposes. That was given to the women of Norway by the Conservatives, but with the aid of Liberal members of the storting, who took the view that you must make a beginning somewhere. That limited vote continued for some time but in 1912 the Liberals were returned to power in spite of it. In 1913 the Liberals and Socialists combined, and, not opposed by the Conservatives, extended the vote to all women; and now the suffrage in Norway stands as the same for both men and women—a universal vote for all adults over 25, both for the state and local purposes.

Women are allowed to sit in Parliament, but not become members of the government.—Globe-Democrat.

TROOPS GO ON STRIKE DUTY

One Man Killed, Three Others Shot When Train Bearing Non-Unionists Is Attacked.

(WNU News Service.) Buffalo, N. Y., March 25.—Troops are on guard at the Gould Coupler company's plant at Depew, where riotous scenes resulted in the shooting of four men. One of the wounded, Stanislaus Slolonski, a bystander, died in a hospital. The outbreak was the first of the strike, which has been in progress eight weeks. Three hundred strikers stopped a train bearing 800 workmen to the plant, by placing obstructions on the track, and then attacked the coaches with revolvers and stones. Deputies on the train returned the fire. The shooting lasted 20 minutes, until reinforcements from Buffalo and Depew arrived.

A second fight took place in the evening and after Thomas Fogarty of Syracuse, a special deputy, had been wounded a call was made for troops. The Seventy-fourth regiment of the national guard was ordered out at 11 o'clock and assembled for strike duty.

GOOD ENOUGH FOR ME.

The world, they say, is gettin' old, an' weary as can be, But write me down as sayin', It's good enough for me! It's good enough, with all its grief, its pleasure, and its pain, An' there's a ray of sunshine for every drop of rain. The stumble in the lonesome dark, they cry for light to see, But write me down as sayin', It's light enough for me! It's light enough to lead us on, from where we faint and fall. And the hilltop nearest Heaven wears the brightest crown of all. They talk about the fadin' hopes that mock the years to be, But write me down as sayin', There's hope enough for me. Over the old world's wailin', the sweetest music swells, In the stormiest night I listen and hear the bells—the bells! This world o' God is brighter than we ever dreamed to know; Its burden's growin' lighter an' it's love that makes it so. An' I am thankful that I'm living when love's blessedness I see, 'Neath a heaven that's forgivin' when the bells ring home to me. Household Guest.

ROBBER NOT YET CAPTURED

No Clue Found to Whereabouts of Man Who Escaped in Taxicab With $2,500.

(WNU News Service.) Altoona, Pa., March 25.—The bandit who held up and robbed the Union bank of about $2,500, shot the cashier and a patron, terrorized passersby with a revolver and escaped in a stolen taxicab has not been captured. The robber, a man about 30 years old, drove to the bank building, on one of the city's busiest corners, at noon. Entering the bank, he deposited a satchel on the floor, drove the teller to shelter and shot the cashier, A. P. Rupert, in the stomach. He then climbed over the partition and, filling the satchel with bills from the counter, started to leave the building. At the entrance he met William Blackburn, a depositor, and shot him in the leg. Clearing the street with a volley of shots, he drove off in a machine which, it was subsequently learned, had been stolen.

RICH WOMAN WEDS GARDENER

Banker's Daughter Disappoints Her Family by Choosing Mate With Lowly Calling.

(WNU News Service.) New York, March 25.—Miss Juliet Breitung, daughter of Edward N. Breitung, president of E. N. Breitung & Co., bankers, was married in New York, Nov. 22 last, to Max Kleist, a gardener, who was employed on an estate adjoining the Breitung family home in Manistique, Mich., according to a statement authorized by Mr. Breitung. The announcement was made after inquiries of Mrs. Breitung and her daughter had brought no confirmation of stories that a clergyman had filed an affidavit that such a marriage had taken place. Young Kleist, it is said, went to work in an Arizona silver mine immediately after the wedding, and his wife returned to her home in the St. Regis hotel. Kleist is 23 years old, four years the senior of his wife.
